Rules and Regulations

Application Submission

1. We seek artists whose work represents the highest quality in design, materials, and workmanship. All vendors must be approved by the Georgetown Food, Beer & Wine Festival Committee. GFBWFC Members maintain the exclusive right to refuse vendors who, in GFBWFC's sole discretion, do not meet festival standards.
2. Vendors must mail their Completed application by April 14th, 2023. Applications Submitted After The Deadline Will only be accepted as on "waiting list" status.
3. Any items that you plan to sell during the event must be represented in your (3) representative booth or merchandise images submitted with application (6 photos for vendors sharing their booth with second vendor.)
4. If you would like to be featured on our social media or would like to donate an item for giveaways, please let us know with your application.
5. Up to 2 vendors may share a booth. Each applicant must submit photos of their work.
6. You are not permitted to assign your space to any other vendor without expressed permission from the GFBWC at least 48 hours in advance.. All vendors must be approved by the GFBWFC

General Rules:

1. Food & drinks sales are prohibited, with the exception of approved pre-packaged artisanal items.
2. GFBWFC reserves the right to remove any offensive or non-juried product.
3. Trash will be collected by vendors and disposed of in provided containers.

4. By participating in the Georgetown Food, Beer & Wine Festival, you agree to release the City of Georgetown, the Georgetown Business Association, city staff, security, and any festival representative from any responsibility from theft, damage, or loss.
5. Vendors will supply their own tents and display tables.
6. Vendors are responsible for the collection and payment of sales tax for State of South Carolina (6%)
7. Generators are not permitted.
8. We will use your artist information and photos on our website and social media for promotional purposes. If you have objections please notify us in writing at: info@artharbor.org.

Registration / Setup / Breakdown:
